The 2017 edition is off to a great start. There is still time to see Fort New Salem in a different light.... Darkness! “Myths of the Mountains” continues on each Saturday night in July. Join us as our story tellers come out at night. Gates open at 8 PM welcoming visitors for an evening of Appalachia Tales. Guests will be accompanied by guides on a special night tour of Fort New Salem at dusk by lamp-light with planned stops at multiple cabins for unique folklore tales by our costumed story tellers. Admission is $7 per person and includes a complimentary cup of cider. The tour is approximately 1 hour 15 minutes in duration with the last group started at 9:30 PM. This event is sponsored in part by Fort New Salem Foundation, Martin Ventures LLC / EastGate Used Cars LLC, Salem International University, Travis Physical Therapy & Body Worx.

Join us for the celebration of music and culture at the 27th Dulcimer Festival on August 11—13. The weekend features hands-on music workshops during the day for all levels of players; tours of Fort New Salem; various non-music artisans demonstrating their craft (blacksmith, tinsmith, basket maker, fiddle maker). The workshops focus primarily on the mountain and hammered dulcimer with additional ones on other folk instruments. Musicians from Ohio, West Virginia, and beyond lead the teaching. Daily general admission for visitors is $7 with children 10 & under admitted free. There will be concerts each day. New for 2017 is the addition of food service through out the day on Saturday! This event is sponsored in part by Fort New Salem Foundation, Martin Ventures LLC / EastGate Used Cars LLC, Salem International University, West Virginia Culture & History.

WENDY SONGE

Wendy Songe, an award winning singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, poet, performer, teacher & Nationally touring musician, is our feature entertainer. Wendy is a musical menagerie you will not want to miss!
