FORT COMES ALIVE WITH FALL FUN

Coming off one our best summers ever, we have planned an exciting fall for you! We are hosting our second Irish Road Bowling, a one night special engagement of Myths of the Mountains, a special program during the Salem Apple Butter Festival . Visit our website for more details or call 304-695-2220. Hope to see you this fall!

IRISH ROAD BOWLING

Sept 23
1:30

Come out, enjoy a fall Sunday afternoon, have some fun and help raise funds for Fort New Salem. Irish Road Bowling, an ancient sport from rural Ireland, played by Union and Confederate Irish troops during the Civil War, is back for a second year. Participants of all ages and experience are welcomed. The entry fee is $20.00 per person which includes bowling, general admission to the Fort and a chicken dinner. Individuals attending but not participating can have general admission and supper for $10.00. Pre-registration requested. Our course begins atop the mountain near Randolph Terrace and winds its way to the road adjacent Fort New Salem.

MYTHS OF THE MOUNTAINS—ENCORE

OCT 27
6 PM

By popular demand, we are offering a special one night performance of our Myths of the Mountains, a lamp light guided night tour of Fort New Salem. Join us for a special night as our costumed story tellers greet our visitors and tell unique folklore tales. The experience lasts a little over one hour and includes a complimentary drink apple cider. Gates open at 6 PM with tours launching every 10 minutes with the final group starting at 9 PM. Spaces are limited. We strongly recommend reserving your time. Call 304-695-2220 for details or to reserve your spot for this special night

SEE YOU AT THE FESTIVAL

OCT 4-7

October is a special time in our community as we celebrate the Salem Apple Butter Festival. Visit our booth on the festival grounds and check out our 2013 full color calendar!

THEN STOP BY THE FORT

OCT 5-6
1:30

As a special bonus, we will be open from 1:30 - 5 on Friday and Saturday during the festival. Artisans will be on site with our feature being a tomahawk demonstration and black powder shoot. General admission applies.

FARM HOUSE FUND NEARS GOAL

Our plans to restore the "Farm House" are ready to begin as soon as we reach our target. We are please to announce we are very close to the goal. Will you be the one to push this project over the top?
