FARM HOUSE

86% of our goal has been attained to secure a future for the farm house by its rehabilitation. Like a long distance runner who approaches the finish line, the end is in sight. Would you like to be the pledge that puts us over the top? As soon as we reach goal, we will begin the process of taking down the cabin. Will you join us in saving this valuable

COUNTRY ROADS COOK OFF

A new event for 2013 is the "Country Roads

Cook-Off". We are currently accepting cooking teams to participate in a cooking competition that will feature foods and recipes of the 19th century and reflect life in central West Virginia of that time period. The event will be on May 18 at Fort New Salem and is a unique opportunity to put the spotlight on local recipes and foods. Our food is a unique asset that we need to celebrate, share and market. More information about the Country Roads Cook-Off is available at our website, via e-mail or by calling David Cutlip at 304-782-3948

NEW GRANTS

We recently received grants from the West Virginia Legislature (electrical project); Harrison County Commission (Spirit of Christmas); Pratt & Whitney (general), DOMINION Foundation (Waldo Run Cabin); Mutchelkause Foundation (Farm House) and the Clarksburg-Harrison Cultural Foundation (John Randolph Spring Arts Kick Off).
