MORE FUN... MORE REASONS TO VISIT

We have a busy summer planned for you! Here are some highlights.

We have certainly created a buzz with our upcoming Heritage—Country Roads Cook-off. Join us on May 18th from 1-5 as multiple cooking teams take the challenge of preparing dishes from a list of main ingredients common to this area in the 1800's! Visitors can view the chef's in action, sample the creations and vote for their favorite. General admission is $10 with visitors 6 & under admitted free .

COUNTY ROADS COOK OFF

May 18

1—5

During our 3rd Annual Hammer In Blacksmith Weekend , June 8 & 9, visitors will see blacksmith demonstrations as well as numerous artisans and vendors in our cabins. There will be much going on with arts and crafts but the feature for the weekend is blacksmithing and includes a workshop for those wanting to learn blacksmithing or improve on their skills. We are thrilled to welcome back Jymm Hoffman to lead this event. General admission is $5 for the event with visitors 6 & under admitted free. Information on workshop application and fees is available on our website

Come see Fort New Salem in a different light.... Darkness! We are back for season 2 of "Myths of the Mountains" in July on each Saturday night. Join us as our gates open at 8 PM welcoming visitors for an evening of Appalachia Tales.

Guests will be accompanied by guides on a special night tour of Fort New Salem at dusk by lamplight with planned stops at multiple cabins for unique folklore tales by our costumed story tellers. Admission is $7 per person and includes a complimentary cup of cider.

EXCITING CABIN PROGRESS

A BIG THANKS

EVENTS CALENDAR

Our Waldo Run Cabin is nearing completion. Watch for the dedication this summer. We are now nearly complete on the Farm House Campaign. We seek

Our thanks goes out to the Members of the Marshville Community who honored the memory of John Randolph with a benefit dinner and silent auction and to all those who participated. The effort raised $3700 which will be used on the Farm House Campaign. Furthermore, a raffle was started in which over $700 in gift cards are being awarded. Tickets will be available at our events and this drawing will be held at Dulcimer Festival in August.
