JOIN US FOR SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS 2012

Tis the season of celebration! The Wassel's brewing; the choirs caroling; the tree is prepared... and you are invited along with your friends and family to our annual Spirit of Christmas in the Mountains. Off of a record 2011 crowd, our celebration is back and better than ever. As winter approaches, join us for a journey back in time to Christmas to the Appalachian frontier of the mid-19th Century.

Our four day celebration gets under way at 3 pm each day. We anticipate have the most cabins open for any of our events in recent history! We have an expanded gift shop, story telling, more artisans, more interpreters, more music including the Clarksburg Madrigals and of course visits by the Belsnickle for the children and a traditional tree lighting using candles. Opportunities will be available to make candles and decorate gingerbread men. Check our website for the latest schedule of events as we add some new things. We thank the Harrison County Commission for their financial support of this event!

LOOKING FOR A YEAR END CHARITY TO HELP? IN MEMORY

JOHN RANDOLPH (1937-2012)

One year ago we launched a campaign to save the Farm House. Our goal was to have this cabin open for this years Christmas Celebration. Fund raising has gone well but our budget necessitates we have it 100% funded before work begins. Although we are close and will renovate the cabin, it will not be for this years celebration.

Would you like to help save the "Farm House and be recognized as a restoration sponsor? If so write, call or e-mail us that you want to save it by pledging a one time donation of $2000.

John Henry Randolph was a visionary; a pioneer; an artist; an educator; a tale teller second to none; and a man who those met would walk away certain that they would like to meet him again. As a professor at Salem College he touched lives. As founder of Fort New Salem, he created a legacy. It is with knowledge that we are where we are because of him and with deep sadness at his passing that we salute John.
